We Prepare Leaders to Make a Difference

Through leadership, character-building activities, and the Scout Oath and Law, Scouting America offers young people the opportunity to gain the skills to navigate an ever-changing world. From Cub Scouts learning teamwork to Eagle Scouts leading impactful projects, we prepare future leaders to make a difference.

Now more than ever, Scouting's values are essential. Through outdoor adventures, service, and leadership training, we instill confidence and resilience. Thanks to our dedicated volunteers and supporters, Scouting continues to thrive, ensuring generations of young people are prepared to lead and serve their communities.
